THE FAMILY ENTRANCE

By Hal E. Roach

The regular Tuesday "movie" night for the Jump family sees them eating a hurried supper - rushing to the show and then because little Evelina had been feeding on salted peanuts she acquired such a thirst that many trips to the water cooler were necessary, - much to the annoyance and discomfort of many patrons. Then to add to the pleasures of the evening (Country Store Night) Mr. Jump wins a duck. Then his troubles really begin and finally the whole family aided by a policeman heads for home.
